

ARRIVAL INFORMATION SPRING, 2012

Arrival in Russellville, Arkansas

The I-20 you have been issued indicates that you must arrive in the U.S. no later than January 12, 2012, which is the first day of class. However, you should plan to arrive in the U.S. a few days earlier to attend mandatory orientation and registration (begins 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, January 10) for new international students. The International and Multicultural Student Services Office (IMSSO) recommends that you arrive on Monday, January 9, 2012. You should arrange to fly in to the Little Rock National Airport (LIT), which is the closest airport to Russellville. Under normal road conditions, the travel time is about 90 minutes.

The IMSSO Offers Free Transportation

The International and Multicultural Student Services Office (IMSSO) will provide free transportation from the airport to Arkansas Tech University on Monday, January 9 at 5:00 p.m. for new arriving students. There will be a representative from Tech at the baggage claim area in the Little Rock National Airport to meet you. You must email, fax, or mail your arrival information using the Transportation & Accommodation Request Form (Response Form 2) to the IMSSO no later than January 4, 2011, if you would like transportation to Arkansas Tech University.

If you do not arrive prior to 5:00 p.m. on January 9, you will be responsible for making your own travel arrangements from the Little Rock National Airport to Arkansas Tech University.

On-Campus Housing in Spring

For those of who wish to live on-campus, it is strongly recommended that you apply online for housing as early as possible. Please note the earliest check-in date for the spring semester is Tuesday, January 10, 2012 at 12:00 p.m.

Accommodation on Arrival

If your arrival on campus will be before January 10 or after 10:00 p.m. of any date, you will need to stay in a hotel until the next available check-in. The IMSSO will assist you in making a reservation at the Economy Inn and will take you to the campus the next morning. Please send Transportation & Accommodation Request Form (Response Form 2) 72 hours in advance of your arrival, preferably by fax or by e-mail, if you would like this assistance. The hotel nightly rate in Russellville is approximately $45-$55 plus tax. Hotels in Russellville near the Arkansas Tech University campus are as follows:
