

Arkansas Tech University (Russellville, AR) Assistant Professor of Computer and Information Science

Position Summary:

The full-time tenure-track position teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in Computer and Information Sciences; advise students; be active in professional development; involve students in research; and provide departmental, college, university, and professional service. In addition, there is an opportunity for summer teaching if the successful candidate wishes.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

Teach 12 credit hours per semester in Computer and Information Science
Effectively advise approximately 20-40 students each semester
Maintain currency in field and mentor students in publishing research
Provide meaningful service to the Department, College, University, and Profession
Developing and teaching graduate and undergraduate courses and programs

Required Qualifications:

Ph.D. in Information Systems, Computer Science or closely related field and two years of experience are required.

Applicants should send resume and cover letter Attn: contact Dr. Phillip Bridgmon, Arkansas Tech University, 1509 North Boulder Ave., Administration 200, Russellville, AR 72801-2222