

Arkansas Tech University (Russellville, AR) Assistant Professor of Economics

Position Summary:

The full-time tenure-track position teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in Economics and related areas; advise students; be active in professional development; involve students in research; and provide departmental, college, university, and professional service.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

Effectively advise approximately 20-40 students each semester

Maintain currency in field and mentor students in publishing research

Provide meaningful service to the Department, College, University, and Profession

Developing and teaching graduate and undergraduate courses and programs

Required Qualifications:

Ph.D. in Economics and two years of experience are required.

Applicants should send resume and cover letter Attn: contact Dr. Phillip Bridgmon, Arkansas Tech University, 1507 north Boulder Ave., Corley 112 Russellville, AR 72801-2222