

The following flowchart illustrates a curriculum process to be followed for new degree programs (including certificates), new options or concentrations, new minors, and separation of an existing degree program into two or more degree programs. Although curriculum development takes place throughout the year, the deadlines shown within the following flowchart are included as guidelines for departments wishing for a proposal to be included with a particular catalog.

*Dates for inclusion in a particular catalog.