

Program Learning Outcomes

College/School

Education

Department

Curriculum & Instruction

Program

MEd Instructional Technology - library media specialist

Link to Program Home

https://www.atu.edu/catalog/graduate/programs/ms_ed/ms_edu_instructional_tech.php

Students who complete the program will demonstrate:

- Articulate and model the ethical practices of librarianship, as expressed in the foundational documents of the library profession including the American Library Association Code of Ethics and the Library Bill of Rights.
- Cultivate the educational and personal development of all members of a learning community, including those with diverse intellectual abilities, learning modalities, and physical variabilities.
- Design and deliver instruction that integrates the National School Library Standards considering learner development, diversity, and differences.
- Model cultural competence and respect for inclusiveness.
- Develop strategies and skills to create both physical and virtual learner-centered environments that are engaging and equitable.
- Collaborate with members of the learning community to design developmentally and culturally responsive resource-based learning experiences that supports content-based instruction.
- Use multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth.
- Demonstrate knowledge of children's and young adult literature that addresses the diverse developmental, cultural, social, and linguistic needs of all learners.
- Model, promote, and teach critical-thinking and the inquiry process by using multiple literacies.
- Articulate, communicate, model, and teach digital citizenship.

- Facilitate and advocate for flexible, open access to library resources and services according to the ethical codes of the profession.
- Make effective use of data to assess programs, policies, and resources.
- Demonstrate knowledge of evaluation criteria and selection tools to develop, curate, organize, and manage a collection designed to meet the diverse curricular and personal needs of the learning community.
- Lead and collaborate with members of the learning community to effectively design and implement solutions that positively impact learner growth and strengthen the role of the school library.
- Design and deliver professional development.

Learning Outcomes

Based on the ALA/AASL/CAEP School Librarian Preparation Standards