
JOURNALISM

CERTIFICATE OF PROFICIENCY IN BROADCAST JOURNALISM

The Certificate of Proficiency in Broadcast Journalism provides students with the opportunity to earn within the first four semesters of study, a certificate acknowledging their instruction in broadcast journalism. This stackable education sequence enhances a student's employment opportunity and augments any degree program with which it is paired.

The Certificate of Proficiency in Broadcast Journalism requires 12 semester credit hours from the following:

- JOUR 2253 Basic Video Production
- JOUR 3183 Digital News Writing
- JOUR 3193 New Media News Gathering
- JOUR 4133 Digital News Production