
ALL COURSES

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

IPBL 1993: Introduction to Diversity Studies

Offered: Fall

This course introduces the topic of diversity from a local to a global perspective using an interdisciplinary approach. This course encourages self-exploration and prepares the learner to explore and experience diverse environments. Topics include race, class, gender, identity, and ethnicity.

IPBL 4893: Collaborative Solutions

Offered: Spring

Prerequisites: upper division standing

This is a problem-solving course in which students from a variety of disciplines will be engaged in a high impact exercise of exploring a contemporary problem and proposing a solution. Each year the contemporary problem to be explored will change.

Note: This course is repeatable for duplicate credit if topic varies.

$45 course fee.