CAEP Measure 2 (Advanced Licensure Programs) Satisfaction of Employers and Stakeholder Involvement Components RA4.1 and RA5.3

The Arkansas Tech University (ATU) College of Education and Health uses and receives data and information from a number of data collection tools and processes to determine how employers feel our advanced licensure program graduates were prepared. The College also provides opportunities for shareholders to work together in improving our programs of study through multiple informal and formal contexts. The following are ways in which we collect and or receive information from shareholders, including employers, in order to improve our education programs.

- 1. ATU Graduate Programs Employer Survey At the end of the spring semester, the ATU College of Education and Health sends a survey to employers of our advanced licensure program graduates (at the Master's and Specialist levels) to determine how well the employers feel our candidates were prepared.
- 2. College of Education and Health Survey with Milestones Met Data At the end of the spring semester, the ATU College of Education and Health sends a survey to program graduates from our advanced licensure programs (at the Master's and Specialist levels) to determine how the graduates are demonstrating expectations of professionals at this level.
- 3. Internal and External Shareholder Involvement the ATU College of Education and Health involves shareholders internally and externally primarily through the following approaches.
 - a. Annual Shareholders Meetings occur during the fall and spring semesters for undergraduate initial educator licensure programs (in spring) and graduate initial educator licensure programs (in fall). Shareholders (public school administrators and faculty, education service cooperative representatives, and university faculty and administrators) provide feedback on programs and graduates. Shareholders analyze program data and provide recommendations concerning data, assessment approaches, clinical/field experiences, and revisions to the courses and curriculum.
 - b. Teacher Education Council meetings primarily occur during the summer/fall semesters to examine changes to the education programs, curriculum, and courses. The Council consists of university and public-school faculty and administrators.
 - c. College of Education and Health Leadership Team meets once per month and organizes additional meetings with school personnel to examine programs and explore potential revisions.

Summary and Notes

Based upon these advanced programs' data results from surveys and shareholder meetings, it appears that employers feel our graduates are well prepared, which was supported by comments, survey feedback, and Praxis results. The survey data concerning the milestones achieved supports this conclusion. Candidates are practicing as strong professionals and achieving a number of milestones in their first years of practice. Various shareholders made recommendations and worked to review and approve processes and programs to ensure that our advanced program preparation continues to improve and evolve. Examples of these efforts are provided in the above tables.
