

CETL Advisory Board
February 23, 2021
Agenda

1. Approval of Minutes – attached to email
2. Budget - $3782.59 remaining (Beginning balance $11,117)
3. Update on current projects
  - a. CETL Badge Creation Team
    - i. Diversity
    - ii. Wellness
  - b. Weekly help sessions – Robin Lasey
    - i. Suggestions? – Gen Ed committee, P&T, example portfolios, backwards designs, alignment (Jeremy Schwem) (Alex Manly), advising center rep
4. January PD Day assessment results – attached to email
5. Ideas for Programming
  - a. Tech Talks – Wed. May 5
    - i. Plenary – Diversity/Disabilities? Diversity and Inclusion department, Title IV
    - ii. Faculty presentations – quick demos

CETL will again be sponsoring the university-wide teaching and learning symposium, "Tech Talks," on Wednesday, May 5, 2021. This symposium features presentations from faculty about teaching and learning strategies. This is an opportunity for faculty to share ideas for the classroom. Presentations will be 20 minutes long, including questions, and will be presented twice. Please consider submitting an abstract for a presentation. Deadline for submission is March 19. Abstracts can be submitted at <https://forms.gle/teBeMg4CTcQpR7yt7>.

Vision

The Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL) promotes student success through a culture of excellence in teaching and learning.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL) is to encourage, support, and enhance teaching effectiveness. CETL fosters faculty growth through active sharing of best practices.