

Arkansas Tech University Graduate College Announces

Out-of-State (Non-Resident) Tuition Fee Waiver
(For International students and students residing outside of Arkansas)

- Act Now: A Limited Number of Waivers will be available for Fall 2017+
+Waivers are renewable pending a student maintaining a cumulative 3.25 graduate GPA

Eligible Programs:

Programs eligible for a waiver from out-of-state (Non-Resident) tuition fee include:

- Master of Science in Engineering for Mechanical Engineering: This degree provides advanced study in a focused area of mechanical engineering to enhance career advancement.
- Master of Science in Engineering for Electrical Engineering: This degree provides advanced study in a focused area of electrical engineering to enhance career advancement.
- Master of Science in Information Technology: This degree offers a study of the hardware and software mechanisms used to implement modern information systems.
- Master of Science in Emergency Management and Homeland Security: This degree offers a specialized program both for existing career professionals in the discipline and for those seeking the diverse employment opportunities available in this evolving career field.

Student Eligibility:

- Students must be a new, incoming student to one of the eligible graduate programs for Fall 2017
- Students must be admitted unconditionally to the Graduate College and program
- International students must meet admission requirements set by IMSSO
- Students newly admitted must have a 3.0 GPA
- Must meet a minimum score of a 150 on the Quantitative section of the GRE (excluded from Emergency Management and Homeland Security program)
- Statement of a research interest and/or topic must be provided (no more than 250 words)*

*Students will need to submit their statement with their admission materials.
International students—will submit admission materials to the IMSSO Office
Domestic students—will submit admission materials to the Graduate College

For More Information: Contact IMSSO office for international admission or the graduate college for domestic admission questions. Students can refer to the graduate college website www.atu.edu/gradcollege/ for more information about the eligible graduate programs.