

WOMEN'S WEEK

ART CONTEST

GREETINGS!

The Department of Campus Life will be celebrating Women's Week week with programming focused on the theme, #LIKEAGIRL. Due to the success of the art exhibit over the last few years, we will again host an art contest during our week of events. We are looking for students to display art work surrounding their interpretation of Like a Girl / Redefine and Empower the phrase.

Students can submit any kind of work of art to be displayed in the Norman Hall cases from March 6-10. The work will be judged Monday, March 6, and the winning student will be awarded a $250 prize at the Art Exhibit Open House on Wednesday, March 8 at 6:30 pm in the Norman Hall Art Gallery. Works will be judged by art professionals in the River Valley community.

OVERALL CONCEPT:

- The subject matter should be about student interpretation of Like a Girl. This may come from personal experiences as well as social observations.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

- Work should have been completed since the student has been in college.
- Work should be no more than three years old.
- Works should be displayed professionally. Framing and mounting is not required.

SIZE REQUIREMENTS:

- Maximum size: Work must fit in the display cases in Norman Hall.
- Any work that does not fit in the display case is not eligible.

ENTRY REGULATIONS:

- The student can submit up to three (3) works.
- Works should be dropped off at Norman Hall on Friday, March 3 between 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm.
- Works can be picked up on Friday, March 10 at 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm in Norman Hall. Any work not picked up that afternoon becomes property of the Department of Campus Life.
- Each work should have a name tag attached to the backs of all works entered. Tags should include name, title, media, price, and contact information of the student.
- No names should be visible on the front of your work.
