Test Error Audit

Instructions: After you take/get back your exam audit your test performance by going through the spreadsheet below. It will help you to catch avoidable mistakes and help you to better recognize ares that you may need to pay more attention to when you study for future exams, especially in the same course.

Test Item Missed Test Take	n
I didn't thoroughly read the text (book or other)
The information was not covered in my notes.
I studied the info, but couldn't recall it.
I knew main ideas but needed details.
I knew the info but could not apply it.
I experienced a mental block.
I panicked.
I was so tired I couldn't concentrate.
I was so hungry I couldn't concentrate.
I made a careless mistake.
I did not choose the best answer.
I did not notice qualifying words.
I did not notice a double negative.
I changed a correct answer to a wrong one.
I misread the instructions.
I misread the question.
I did not manage the test time well.
I wrote poorly organized responses.
I wrote incomplete responses.
I couldn't describe the relation between concepts.							