Check the hours within the summary section. All full-time employees are required to have 40 hours per week from Sunday to Saturday. These hours can consist of a combination of working, leave, or holiday time.

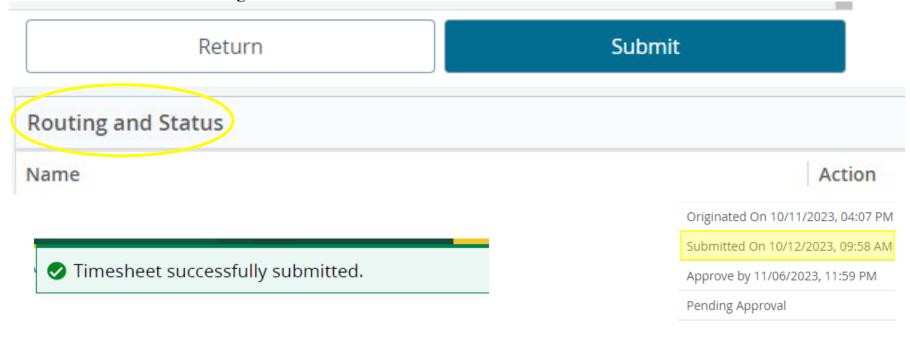

If a week reflects less than 40 hours in the summary section, be sure to verify why & determine if corrections should be made. In the example above, Week 1 is showing 8 hours because Monday to Thursday were in a different pay period, but the majority of weeks should reflect 40 hours.

6. Timesheets can be submitted once all working hours are reflected and any leave time has been requested. Monthly timesheets are due on the 12th of the month that follows the pay period.

Example:

For the September 1st to 30th timesheet, the timesheet deadline is the 12th of October at 11:59 p.m. If the 12th falls on a holiday or weekend the deadline will be adjusted to allow additional working days for timesheet completion.

7. From the Preview screen, click Return to go back and edit the timesheet as needed or click Submit to send the timesheet to your Supervisor. Only click the Submit button once. Once submitted, check to see that the timesheet shows as submitted under the Routing and Status section.

Time-clock Timesheet Instructions

There are positions on campus that require monthly employees to record start and end time worked instead of only reflecting the total hours worked for each day. The steps outlined below are specific to these positions' timesheets.

1. Follow steps 1 through 4 from the How do I (employee) submit my timesheet through web time entry section of this guide to access the timesheet.

2. Click the date on the calendar or use the arrows on the sides to go to other weeks. You can either enter your time manually, or click the in the corner of In Time and Out Time. Both options are described in the instructions on the next page.

To enter time manually complete the textbox under *Start Time for the selected date using the correct format detailed below. The *End Time will need to be indicated as well before the time entered can be saved. Once the Start and End times are indicated, click Save.

Click the
Add More Time button to add additional clock in and out times. This may be necessary when an employee reflects a lunch break or leaves for an appointment and returns in the afternoon.

When entering your time, you will need to round to the nearest quarter hour and use the correct format: (00:00 AM / 00:00 PM)

The clock-in and out values should be round based on the following list:

1 to 6 minutes = (top of current hour) example: 2:00

7 to 21 minutes – example: 2:15

22 to 36 minute – example: 2:30

37 to 52 minutes – example: 2:45

53 to 59 minutes = (top of the next hour) example: 3:00

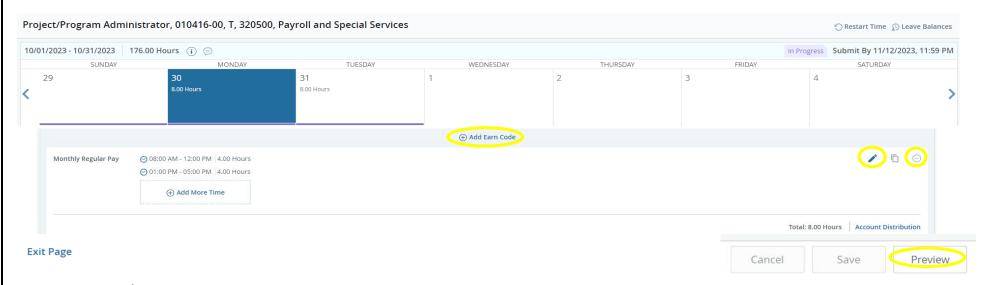

Example with Lunch in/out times: 8:05 am clock in should be 08:00 am, 12:04 pm clock out should be 12:00 pm,

1:04 pm clock in should be 01:00 pm, 5:06 pm clock out would be 05:00 pm

Example without lunch indicated: 8:05 am clock in should be 08:00 am, 5:06 pm clock out would be 05:00 pm

Continue indicating time for the dates worked within the pay period using either of the methods described above. Once the timesheet is completed, click on the Preview button.

Clicking the will allow the employee to adjust the amount of time entered. The Save button must be clicked before moving to the next date or the changes will not be reflected.

Clicking the will delete the earn code and remove the hours from the selected date. The employee will need to click Yes and then click Save again to completely remove the hours.

Clicking allows users to copy the time from the selected day across multiple other dates.

Please be careful about pre-entering and copying time. It will be your responsibility to change the time if you do not work what you originally entered.

Clicking the Preview button will display the Timesheet Detailed Summary.

Timesheet Status Definitions

Not Started – Timesheet has not been opened for the pay period.

In Progress- Timesheet has been opened but not submitted for approval.

Pending- Timesheet is waiting for approval from your supervisor.

Returned- The timesheet has been returned by the employee's supervisor or the Payroll office. You will receive an automated email when the timesheet status changes. Review your email and/or the comment section of the timesheet for additional details. Make any necessary changes and resubmit the timesheet prior to the deadline. There is additional information about this timesheet status in the, "What do I do if my timesheet is returned?" section on page 15.

Error- This means your timesheet contains an error. If an employee is having trouble with a timesheet in error status they should contact the Payroll office.

How do I recall my timesheet if I need to make changes?

There will be a Recall Timesheet button on the bottom of the screen once you have submitted your timesheet. Click this button if you need to pull your timesheet back to make any changes before your supervisor approves the timesheet.

If you click "Recall Timesheet" you will need to submit your timesheet for approval again before the deadline.

What do I do if my timesheet is returned?

After a timesheet is completed and submitted, the supervisor will review the timesheet to confirm it is accurate with all time reflected. If the supervisor notices an inaccuracy in the timesheet, they will return the timesheet to the employee for corrections. The supervisor can add a comment into the timesheet to note the correction(s) required. The automated email below will be sent when the timesheet is returned for corrections.

The payroll office may also return the timesheet. The timesheets are audited throughout the month that follows the pay period, by our office. In addition to the automated email (example above), we will will add a comment within the timesheet with details for the returned timesheet.

Common Timesheet Mistakes

Time missing

Each work week should have a minimum of 40 hours. The 40 hours can be a combination of regular working time, leave and holiday time. A work week begins on Sunday and ends on Saturday.

Leave Request Issues
➤ If leave time is missing you may have a pending or missing leave request.
☐ Input any missing leave requests. If you have a pending leave request, check with your supervisor to obtain approval of your pending request so it will be reflected on your timesheet.
Approved leave requests are automatically processed overnight. For this reason, most leave requests should be submitted before leave is taken. Payroll can manually run this process to meet timesheet deadlines, but this should not be something that is frequently necessary.
Γοο many hours reflected on a single day
➤ This can happen if an employee enters a leave request and regular working hours that total to more than the employees needed hours for the same day.
☐ If leave time needs to be returned to the employee, please consult with your supervisor so he/she can issue a leave credit to you.
☐ Please be mindful of university holidays. Holiday hours automatically populate in your timesheet. If you did not work on a university holiday, you do not need to record any working hours for that day.
Comments
☐ The comment section of the timesheet is not a good place to contact the Payroll Office. We do not see comments until we are auditing your timesheet. This section of the timesheet is used to provide additional information.
