Dr. Jack R. Hamm
Vice President for Academic Affairs
Arkansas Tech University
Russellville, AR 72801

Dear Dr. Hamm:

Please accept this letter and the final reports as the submission of a grant supported research project. With the grant approved by the Faculty Research Grant Committee on April 3, 2006, this project of paper presentations and publications has been completed.

The first paper, entitled "From Analog to Digital: Broadcast Curricula in Colleges and Universities of Six Continents in the 21st Century," was presented to the Curriculum Division of the 2006 BEA (Broadcast Education Association) conference, Las Vegas, NV, April 27-29.

The second paper, entitled "Impact of Television News on Public Opinion about the Iraq War: An Assessment of Second-Level Agenda Setting and Framing," was presented to the Journalism Division of the 2006 ICA (International Communication Association) conference, Dresden, Germany, June 19-23.

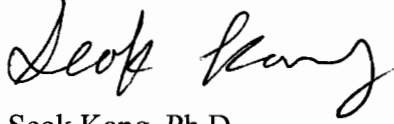

The third paper, entitled "Disembodiment in Online Social Interaction: Impact of Online Chat on Social Support and Psychosocial Well-Being," was presented to the New Communication Technology Division of the 2006 ICA (International Communication Association) conference, Dresden, Germany, June 19-23. The paper was published in the national journal CyberPsychology and Behaviors.

The fourth paper, entitled "The Influence of Viewing an Entertainment-Education Program on Cornea Donation Intention: A Test of the Theory of Planned Behavior," was presented to the Health Communication Division of the 2006 ICA (International Communication Association) conference, Dresden, Germany, June 19-23. The paper was published in the national journal Health Communication.

The fifth paper, entitled "Colleges and Universities' Use of the World Wide Web: A Public Relations Tool for School Excellence for the Digital Age," was presented to the Public Relations Division of the 2006 ICA (International Communication Association) conference, Dresden, Germany, June 19-23. The paper was published in the national journal Public Relations Review.

Again, I appreciate your support for this project. This project could not be completed without your support.

Sincerely,
