There are no students remaining in the Bachelor of Science in Coaching Athletics and Physical Activity program. All students were moved to Bachelor of Science in Health Exercise Science - Coaching Athletics and Physical Activity and Advanced Certificate in Secondary Education. The Department of Kinesiology and Rehabilitation Science's Bachelor of Science in Health and Exercise Science Coaching Athletics and Physical Activity HES CAPA) track focuses on optimal performance of the human body. The track is designed for students seeking careers in K-12 teaching and athletic coaching, gym/health center management, or recreation supervisor. The track includes two options: Students desiring to coach and teach in public school systems complete the Advanced Certificate in Secondary Education to obtain an Arkansas teaching license in K-12 Health and Physical Education with a coaching endorsement. A second content area for teaching certification is recommended for this option. Students seeking careers in gym/health center management or recreation supervision choose a minor in a related area. Suggested minors include Business and Marketing.
