

Happy Friday! The year has clicked away, and I hope you have been kept safe and healthy. If we don't meet, I will assemble a report of what's went on over the year concerning Technology.

Most of it, you know, as we have concentrated on remote delivery, classroom capabilities, and video/audio delivery.

We are still implementing equipment for the network and server systems that we bought through cares act funding.

Ken Wester

12/4/2020