Proposal for Faculty-led Study Abroad Program

A Study Abroad Program (SA Program) includes all activities, classes, excursions (e.g., city tours), transportation (international and local), as well as room and board from the departure (first airport in the USA) to the return (last airport in the USA).

Leading a group of students abroad is a professionally rewarding experience for faculty members. The following information is designed to help faculty outline the critical details of their new program. This in turn helps to ensure that the program is shaped with the needs of students in mind and that all important details have been gathered and considered. Should you have questions as you complete your feasibility proposal, the Study Abroad Office (SA Office) will be glad to assist you. Please feel free to contact SA Office at (479) 964-0527 to discuss international program ideas. We encourage you to meet with our office about any issues to which you cannot answer throughout the proposal process. The Proposal for an SA Program includes the most pertinent and current (up to the date of the proposal signature) information on all activities (classes, excursions such as city tours), transportation (international and local), room and board, and a detailed itinerary.

As you begin to complete the proposal process, please be advised that creating new programs may, at times, be a lengthy process. We suggest you begin developing your program 12-14 months prior to your proposed program start date so there is ample time to recruit students. *Please be advised: The standard proposal deadlines for programs are:*December 1 of prior year for Fall Term, June 15 of year prior for Spring Term, and June 15 of year prior for Summer Term. No applications will be accepted after these dates.

After your Department Head and Dean have approved your SA Program proposal, the International Travel Advisory Council will review it. The Council will make a recommendation to the Vice President of Academic Affairs, who will decide whether the program will go forward. The SA Office will notify the faculty leader once the program has been reviewed.

Below is an example:

a. SA Program Name and Description: The Art of London and Paris

History comes alive through the iconic landmarks and pageantries of London and Paris. Kings and queens once shaped the course of world history from these two vibrant capitals. Today, both cities boast the essential art, music and culture of a modern metropolis to remain enduring centers of influence. Uncover the treasure – both historic and modern – of these timeless cities on your comprehensive tour of London and Paris.

If known, list any person and their capacities, including guest speakers, associated with the affiliated organization(s) who may assist with the SA P rogram.

H. Budget

Make an appointment with the SA coordinator to work on the budget. During the meeting, a detailed program budget will be created utilizing the budget template, see below. In preparation for the meeting, you should gather as much current information as possible regarding the expected expenses prior, during, and after the SA Program. It is expected that you will bring current source documentation for the expenses that will be included in the proposed budget. Estimated information is accepted, but it must be current. Please note that all expenses must be accounted for in the proposed budget.

Disclose and provide documentation on all types of funding (both internal and external) being applied for, or expected to be received for this SA Program. This includes in-kind and other monetary funding.

Appendix 1: ATU Study Abroad Learning Objectives

In providing students with the best study abroad programs possible, we focus on the highest quality academic and cultural experiences. By studying abroad on an ATU program, students will:

1. Identity Goals

- Re-examine their values and priorities to become better contributors to the global community.
- Learn to accurately and diplomatically represent their perceived home culture.

2. Cross Cultural Goals

- Understand the diversity of the host society and better understand the diversity in our own society.
- Appreciate subtle (and not-so-subtle) differences in social mores, the function and deployment of humor, and what is deemed "acceptable".
- Demonstrate critical thinking skills in the areas of cultural analysis and intercultural understanding.

3. Academic Goals

- Develop a better understanding of global issues.
- Gain a heightened awareness of global environmental concerns.
- Gain an understanding of the host society including its politics, economy, society, history, identity and culture.
- Develop a deeper sense of political difference across cultures, and how the US is perceived abroad.
- Develop skills and academic and professional abilities applicable for use in regional and global contexts.
- Demonstrate critical thinking skills in the areas of cultural analysis and intercultural understanding.
- Develop an openness to differing viewpoints on controversial topics and be able to form and share their own opinions.
- Increase their levels of independence and confidence when it comes to researching and seeking out local resources

4. Professional and Life-Long goals

- Improve their problem solving skills by developing empathy for others and a trans-cultural perspective.
- Improve their ability to bridge social-economic differences with their U.S. peers.
- Develop skills and academic and professional abilities applicable for use in regional and global contexts.

5. Language Learning Goals

- Gain independence from English and incorporate the host language into daily communicative strategies and performance.
- Communicate effectively with people in the target culture in their own language.
- Expand communication skills by finding creative ways to navigate around communication barriers.
- Develop an understanding of non-verbal cues of communication used in daily interactions.
