

Student Support Services

AT ARKANSAS TECH UNIVERSITY

A Federally Funded TRIO Program

TRIO

Who We Are

SSS is a supportive community that offers services to help eligible participants succeed in college.

Who We Serve

To be eligible for SSS, a student must qualify by at least one of the following:

First Generation College Student
Limited or Low Income
Learning or Physical Disability

An applicant must be a US citizen or permanent resident, show a need for academic support, and plan to complete a bachelor's degree at Arkansas Tech University.

What We Do

SSS offers a variety of free services, including:

- Academic Advice
- Major & Career Advice
- Financial Aid Guidance
- Mentoring
- Tutoring
- Study Materials
- Exclusive Study Space
- Leadership Development
- Cultural Enrichment Trips
- Financial Literacy
- Workshops

How to Apply

Submit a completed application to the Student Support Services office in Brown Hall, Suite 345. Our application form can be found in our office or online at www.atu.edu/sss.

Once your application is received, a staff member will contact you to schedule a brief interview with the SSS program director.

Learn More

www.atu.edu/sss

Brown Hall, Suite 345

Phone: (479) 880-4172

Email: trio.sss@atu.edu

Arkansas Tech - Student Support Services

The Student Support Services TRIO program at Arkansas Tech University is funded in total (100%) by federal grant funding from the U.S. Department of Education with an annual budget of $253,032 to serve 140 students on campus.